(ANONYMOUS ARTICLE: "IN THE JUNGLES OF ESPIONAGE")

(TEXT) THE SOUTH VIETNAMESE SEPARATE STATE WAS LIFTED OUT OF

THE CRADLE BY NO LESS A PERSON THAN ALLEN DULLES, "AMERICA'S

SUPERSPY." AS EARLY AS 1953 NINETEEN FIFTYTHREE, IN THE FIRST

YEAR OF PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S TERM, THE RULING CIRCLES OF THE

UNITED STATES SAW CLEARLY THAT THE FRENCH HAD LOST THE WAR AGAINST

THE PEOPLES OF INDOCHINA. IN WASHINGTON THEY THOUGHT THE TIME

HAD COME TO GAIN A FIRM FOOTHOLD IN AT LEAST A PART OF INDOCHINA

IN ORDER TO SPREAD U.S. INFLUENCE FROM THERE OVER THE ENTIRE

FORMER COLONIAL EMPIRE OF FRANCE IN THIS AREA.

ACCORDING TO WALTER LIPPmann THE THEN SECRETARY OF STATE

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, ALLEN'S OLDER BROTHER, SET UP THE TASK OF
